

UCMP and YOU

Become a Friend of the Museum

UCMP makes a difference. Our museum is recognized internationally as a resource for research and instruction, and sharing that research with a broader audience is critical to our mission. Paleontology integrates information from numerous sciences and thus provides a core of interest for multiple audiences and an opportunity for teachers to integrate many disciplines of science in a natural way. Our focus is on research and on promoting enthusiasm for and understanding of science in grades K-16.

We need your involvement and support. Become a Friend of UCMP and your financial support will ensure that we can reach our goals of community involvement and outstanding science education, while remaining one of the world's foremost institutions for paleontological research. In addition, as a Friend of UCMP, you can expect to receive:

-  Special advance notice of UCMP's scientific and educational activities.
-  A subscription to the UCMP News, our quarterly newsletter.
-  Discounts on all UCMP activities and events.

To become a Friend, simply fill in the information below and send it, along with your check, payable to UC Regents, to:
